

Cassandra Haavisto

Regional Manager

Cassandra Haavisto has been a high-level multi-site manager in Washington, Oregon and California markets during her 20 years in multifamily management. Her breadth of experience is an asset for investors and staff, and her tenacity, strong work ethic and positive attitude make her a natural at finding opportunities in under-utilized assets. A designated problem solver, Cassandra is willing to roll up her sleeves to get the job done.

Some of Cassandra's previous employers include major industry players like Alliance Residential Company and Lewis Apartment Communities, where she served as Regional Manager, Harsch Investment Properties, where she was an Area Manager, and Trammell Crow Residential, where she was Director of Training, Senior Manager and Recruiter. She has experience with a wide variety of major real estate investment players, including individuals, family ownerships and institutional investors. She has managed more than 13,000 units during her career.

Cassandra has managed individual assets in all stages, from new construction through renovation, and has been exposed to a wide variety of transactions, lease-ups and daily operations. She also has experience in affordable housing and has had a working introduction to other types of real estate, including single-family housing, condominiums, and retail and other commercial space.

Cassandra holds a Washington state broker's license and is a Certified Property Manager (CPM) candidate. She has earned multiple sales awards in Washington and Oregon.
