

Darcy Vincent

Regional Manager

Darcy has more than 20 years of property and asset management experience. She has demonstrated success with the lease-up of new construction, relocation and renovation oversight, and turning around troubled assets. Darcy is able to motivate staff to perform to their potential and is a supportive leader. She is hard-working and detail-oriented, and committed to providing client services which exceed expectations.

Darcy has extensive experience in affordable housing management and finance. She is the former CEO of Housing Northwest, where she built an affordable housing fee management organization with 53 projects and 180 employees. As Vice President for Asset Management for Homestead Capital, she was responsible for new development feasibility analysis and had $420 million in apartment assets under management. Darcy was honored as one of the Portland Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" in 2006.
